

ncounter: an open invitation to stand with us

ncounter is a youth charity with a Christian basis seeking to bring good news to every aspect of young people's lives. A key part of our work is combining performing arts and education. After more than 3 years in youth work and ministry connecting with over 33,000 young people and seeing hundreds respond to a call to faith, we are convinced there are thousands more young people in this area who are open to hearing about life in all its fullness.

If only they can hear it in a way they can easily relate to.

We know that young people today are the most "sold to" generation ever. Bombarded with over 3,000 advertisements every day since birth, they have learned to care most what friends think about everything from clothes to faith. And with less than 40 students who are in a church or fellowship in an average school of 1,000 today, that's unlikely to include an opinion from friends who are living life as a Christian.

A few of the things we've heard.....

“ I hope that ncounter's band long continues as a way of sharing Christianity with young people. I believe it is such a good way of challenging misconceptions and sharing with students a positive way they can live their life
(Krissy, Lead Teacher for Humanities) ”

“ We have just had a wonderful week with the band both in church and in the local school. They worked hard and showed a great attitude which made a real impact on the school. It has opened up the way for our youth worker to now go in on a regular basis each week....
(Tim, Pastor) ”

“ “Hi – I'm 13 and I know you must hear this a lot, but you have changed my life. You helped me to believe in God and have a friendship with God, because I didn't think he was real before...”
(Ruby, student) ”

But we also know from experience that sharing our faith and the life we live as Christians can have a major impact - it just takes people with a passion for God who are bold, relevant and authentic. And our commitment here at ncounter to resourcing and releasing Christians to deliver high quality music - the background to most young people's lives - is undiminished. That commitment means we are heard, can share our journey of faith and the life we are living.

I believe that we can make this happen in a new and exciting way if we work together. That's why I am writing to ask you to stand with us now. ncounter stands at the edge, ready to recruit, train and resource a new band equipped to share our faith and life with young people across Wiltshire and beyond. This summer our existing band, Collective, ends its second and final run with us. We want to replace Collective and believe we have the experience and the connections to do so credibly and authentically so that, as Collective finish, an exciting new band can be launched this summer.

If you will stand with us, we can make it a reality. We can take action which offers new life to tens of thousands of young people who today have no connection with Christians and no contact with churches. Action for life.

Please stand with us at this crucial time, when so few young people have opportunities to hear the good news of Jesus in a relevant, credible and authentic way. Simply fill in the form below and return it to us at the address shown, and we will make sure you're updated with prayer updates and news on a regular basis.

Thank you in advance.
